Sao Paulo Communists foresee strong police action against them and have issued the following orders to circumvent such action:

- Files are to be moved to points where they will be more secure. Documents of minor importance are to be destroyed. The most important documents of the Municipal and State Committees are to be placed in the care of Afonso Liguori.
- All cell meetings must be suspended temporarily.
- District Committees must restrict their meetings to no more than four persons.
- Vigilance should be practiced on all members of the Party, and those who are suspect must be eliminated.
- Emphasis will be placed on raising funds for the financing of the Sao Paulo Communist daily, Noticias de Hoje, by supporting the Committees for Solidarity, which raise money through raffles and festivals.
- A demand must be made by means of the press, wall inscriptions, etc., for the release of ex-Deputy Joao Taibo Cadorniga and others who were recently imprisoned because of their efforts to instigate a strike movement among the public workers.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
